A	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❑ One voice talked at time.❑ We heard from everybody, without even having to ask.❑ We stayed with one idea.❑ Our conversation was thoughtful and deeper than just summarizing our books.❑ We gave evidence or examples from our books.❑ We stuck to the task at hand and never veered from it.
B	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❑ Most of the time we took turns talking.❑ We heard from everybody after a little prompting.❑ A couple of times there were interruptions or short silences.❑ We almost stayed with one idea.❑ Our conversation sometimes fell back on simply summarizing our books, but mostly was thoughtful and deep.❑ We usually gave evidence or examples from our books.❑ We stuck to the task at hand and never veered from it.
C	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❑ It got kind of loud because there were a lot of voices going at once.❑ We only heard from a few people.❑ People couldn't hear what others were saying.❑ There were periods of long silences.❑ Our discussion went all over the place, with little organization.❑ Much of our conversation was simply summarizing our books.❑ We did not give much evidence or examples from our books.❑ We got off track and talked about other things than books or reading.
D	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❑ Nobody listened to anybody.❑ Only one or two people really said anything.❑ There was not much depth to what was said.❑ A lot of the conversation was not about books or reading.
